Why Choose IASeminars?

Whatever your requirements are for training in international accounting, you can be assured that IASeminars are ready to deliver.

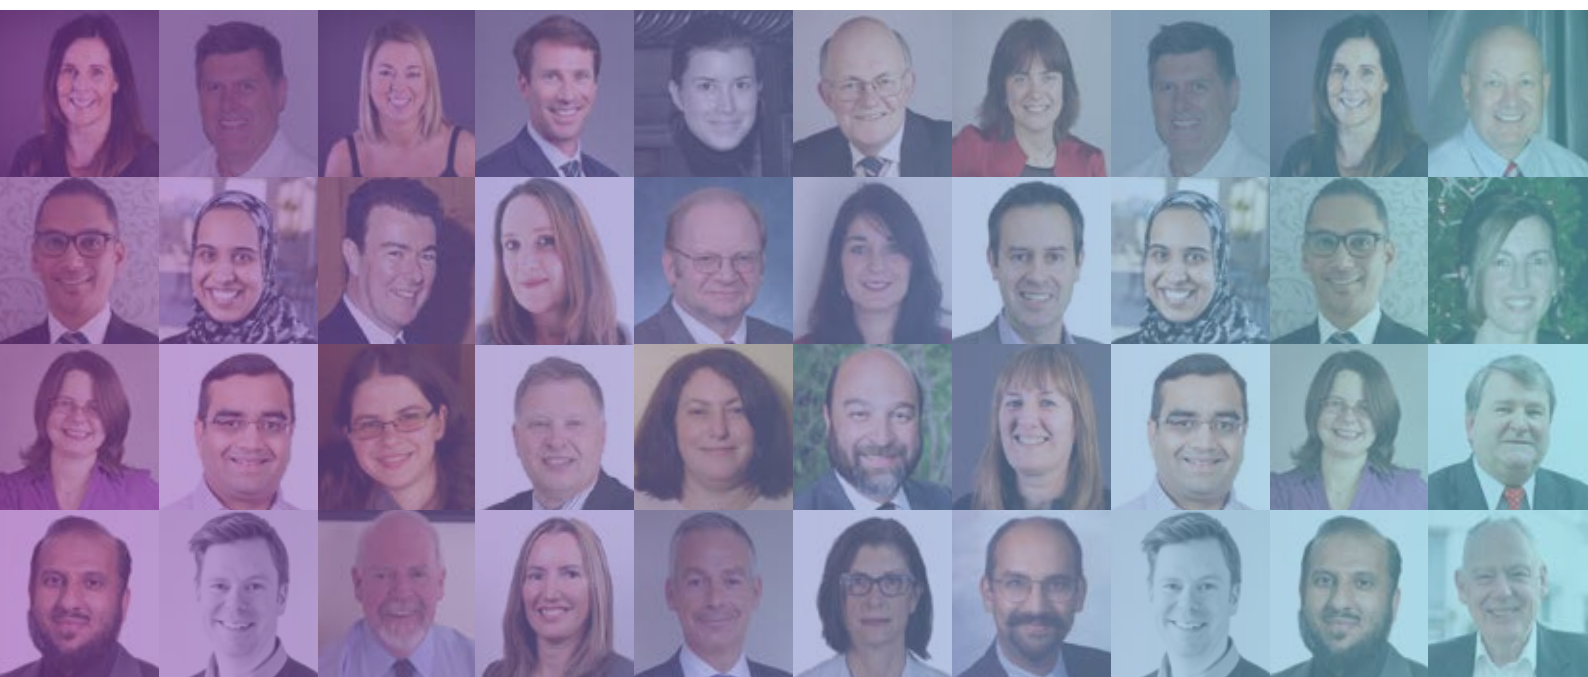

We offer topics such as IFRS, US GAAP, IPSAS, Management Accounting and Banking Regulation, and here at IASeminars we don't just sell courses, we are passionate about helping you progress your professional development now and throughout your career.

IASeminars was founded back in 2002 and have offices in London, Washington D.C, Toronto and Cape Town as well as a global faculty of over 30 subject-matter experts. Not only do we offer over 100 public events in major cities globally, but we also offer bespoke in-house training courses, ensuring the knowledge you seek is tailored to your specific needs and brought to your doorstep.

Most importantly our customer focussed culture influences everything that we do. Our customer support and account management team will work to provide you with the best customer experience. You can be confident that we won't sell you courses that don't suit your needs, instead we want our courses to meet your unique requirements. We know that location is an important part of your buying decision. We chose our venue cities carefully. Our main financial hub cities offer you opportunities for combining training with other business and of course for enjoying the surroundings.

We pride ourselves on having never been a faceless organisation. Our staff have been with us for many years now and take pleasure in helping you progress through your career. Whether you are booking training for yourself, or for your team, our experienced and friendly account managers are standing by to hear from you.

Client Testimonials

"This is my first time trained on IPSAS but I have felt that I can implement it mainly because of the way the instructor - Bill Kemp - has handled most of the topics. He gives live examples and they are well illustrated."

"Out of curiosity I wanted to improve my knowledge on IPSAS, got on the internet and found this Online introduction. I tried my hand on it. From the beginning of the interaction with the personnel to the end of the final examination, I was thrilled and treated to a wonderful leaning experience."

Small session is good, makes the course more relevant than a room full of people. Presentation excellent. An engaging and informative update delivered in a professional way to a manageable size cohort which in turn led to good participation.
